NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE GANTELINE

is the only article in Ladies' Jewelry complete in itself that has been introduced in a quar-ter of a century. It does not displace any other jewelry and is suitable to be worn on seamstress, the lady, or the gentleman—the all occasions. Ladies will find this charming trip is one of pleasure and delight. Competiernament remarkable for its elegance, sim- tion has reduced the fare, and the price of the plicity, and surpassing utility. It is a superb round trip averages but one-fourth cent per combination—a short ornamental pencil, armile. This is a great incentive, more especombination—a short ornamental pencit, artistic charm or pendant; a chain several inches in length, connecting an clongated link, similar to a halrpin. It is worn in the button-hole, and without detachment the pencil may be used for memoranda or the link to button the glove. The encomiums remainded in a putton the glove. A Norfolk Trip.

To these "who go down to the sea in big ships and do business in great waters" the trip by water from this city to Norfolk has no especial attraction, but to the land-lubber -the gro-

Lady of the Lake. Captain Travers, her commander, is an old sea-dog—one of your deepwater sailors—and, with the demeanor of a gentleman, he makes the sojourn on his boat agreeable and delightful. The attractions along the route, both of land and water, are known to most all, and it is needless to recount.

There was a very pleasant party of 100 or more on beard the "Lake," among whom were the Commissioner of Agriculture and son, the Hon. Messis. Hiscock, Money, Blackburn, McKenzie, Balley, and others of the House of Representatives, and many ladios and gentlemen high in the social circles of this city. With no fault to find, with all employees of the steamer polite and attentive, accommodathe steamer polite and attentive, accommoda-tions of a superior order, and a table unrivaled in variety and excellence, the trip could not be otherwise than agreeable, and such it was voted. And may we be there again!

What intense pain is caused by tooth-ache. How many sleenless nights and weary days are due to its raging influence. Yet the true cause of all this torment is decayed teeth, produced by neglect and instention. Could only those who have at present good, sound teeth fully realize this fact, how careful would they be to keep their teeth in good condition. To all such we will give a word of advice. Clean your teeth daily with a good dentifice, such as Thunsrow's Iveny Phark Toorn Powner. It will preserve your teeth through life, remoye all tartar or extraneous matter, keep them clean sound, and white, and tooth-ache, with all its horrors, will be unknown.
